

Recent events in ALSAA Bowl – 15 December 2015

Winner of the “Jim Delaney” Sports Person of the Year Cup

The 2015 Winner of the “Jim Delaney” Sportsperson of the Year Cup, presented to the Aer Lingus Tenpin Bowling Club by the ITBA in 198,5 was Aidan Byrne who was recognised for the following achievements:

- Joined bantams at age of 8 and progressed to juniors
- First 300 at age 15
- Was on Triple Crown team every year
- Was on Triple Crown team that won gold in 2011
- Won Junior Matchplay in 2011
- On EYC team in Munich 2011
- Won Irish Open under 24 in 2013
- Won Youth European Trophy (YET) in 2014
- Represented Ireland in World Cup in Poland in 2014
- Currently competing across Europe in EBT's

Aidan Byrne, with his father and mother in ALSAA Bowl on 4th December 2015

Aer Lingus Tenpin Bowling Club 2015 Knock-out Cup

All teams playing in the ALTBC Winter League are drawn to play in the annual Knock-out Cup. The 28 teams playing this year started in the 32 team matchplay on 30th October, with the previous year's winners and runners up getting a bye into Round 2. The Semi-Final and Final took place on 9th December. The winners were “BAZINGA”, with Leon Ronan, Mark Hinchliffe, Dave Cummins, Stephen Dillon and Sandra Winstanley.

Stephen Dillon, Leon Ronan, Mark Hinchliffe, Dave Cummins – K/O Cup Winners

Recent events in ALSAA Bowl – 15 December 2015

“Michael Gallagher” Perpetual Cup for the ALTBC Most Improved Average in League Bowling

The 2015 winner of the “MTG Cup”, presented by Carol Cottell, was Adam Glaholm , who bowls with “THE TIMBERWOLVES” and improved his average by 21 pins, from 186 to 207, in the Winter 2014/15 League.

Most Improved “MTG” Cup Winner – Adam Glaholm in ALSAA Bowl on 11th December

New Mixed Doubles Game and Series ALSAA House Record

While bowling in the Monday Doubles League last night, 14th December, Amanda Larkin and Paul Stott Jnr set new records for Mixed Doubles with a game of 541 (+7 pins) and a 3 game series of 1421 (+66). Their individual games were:

Amanda	247 – 194 - 263 =	704
Paul	225 – 214 - 278 =	717
Total	472 – 408 – 541 =	1421

The records they beat were set for the game of 534 by Robert Cassidy and Amanda McDermott on 28th January 2009 and the series of 1355 set by Matt Hann and Amanda McDermott on 8th January 2011.

Paddy Kilduff
Secretary
Aer Lingus Tenpin Bowling Club